

THE WAR CRISIS INCIDENT COMPETITION

LATEST NEWS OF SALVATION FIGHTING ON THE FIELD

HALIFAX I.
Victorious Campaign Conducted by
Mrs. Staff-Captain Malby—
Large Crowds Attended

The meetings at Halifax I. conducted by Mrs. Staff-Captain Malby (Captain Nellie Banks) were attended by large crowds. Thirty-five years ago she opened the work here, and it gladdened her heart to see some of the old comrades of those days standing true to God and the Army.

The welcome meeting was held on Saturday night, when Adjutant Hargrove did a few fitting remarks introduced Mrs. Malby to an audience that almost filled the main hall of the Citadel. Mrs. Brigadier Walton and several of the comrades also spoke a few words of welcome. Mrs. Malby, after expressing the pleasure it gave her to be back again in the old battleground, and renewing old acquaintances, gave a straight-from-the-shoulder appeal to sinners, and two souls came to the Cross.

About two hundred were present at the Holiness meeting on Sunday morning, and four converts sought the blessing of a clean heart. In the afternoon Mrs. Malby dedicated the baby of Bandmaster and Mrs. Hiltz, whose grandparent she had carried as a soldier thirty-five years ago.

Almost one hundred extra chairs had been crowded into the Citadel for the night meeting, but even then fully two hundred persons were unable to gain admittance.

Mrs. Hargrove, in speaking, referred to dead old Dad Barnes of St. John I., now in glory, and how in an open-air meeting conducted by herself he had found Christ. Ten souls came to Jesus in the prayer meeting.

On Tuesday night Mrs. Malby said farewell to the people of Halifax. The main hall was crowded, and six souls came to the mercy-seat. The climax was reached when Mrs. Malby, standing on a chair and holding the old flag, called the Officers and Candidates around her and then appealed to those who felt they should offer themselves as Candidates to come forward. Five young men and women responded.

On the following Sunday morning four of our comrades rededicated their lives to God. In the afternoon Adjutant Hargrove dedicated the infant baby of Brother and Sister Wimbles.

The Citadel at night was again crowded to the doors, and ten souls were converted, two of them being the husbands of the sisters who on the Saturday night before knelt at the mercy-seat.

The revival fire continues to burn. Old veterans and young converts are fighting shoulder to shoulder, while every branch of the work is forging ahead.

KITCHENER.
We are having good times here. Captain Bridge and Lieutenant Mosher are leading us on. We are rejoicing over seven souls at the mercy-seat.

On Thursday, March 3, Adjutant Best of Hamilton conducted a public meeting and enrolled eighteen Life-Saving Guards and Scouts. At the close of this meeting one Guard sought Salvation.

CAMPBELLFORD.
Cottage Prayer Meetings Proving a Blessing—Souls Being Won—
For God.

"Thank God for the Great Call Campaign; it seems to be waking men and women up to the fact that they have precious souls to save, and it is causing His own to redouble their efforts to serve Him. We are experiencing great times in the little Corps of Campbellford. God is working in our midst, and we are rejoicing over souls being won for Him, and best of all, they are being enrolled as Soldiers. We are expecting to enroll at least five recruits on Thursday."

On Thursday, March 3, we had with us Staff-Captain Layman of Montreal, a good open air was followed by a Salvation meeting. Then on Friday afternoon the Staff-Captain held a lantern service for the children, at which two hundred and twenty were present. In the evening another lantern service was given for the adults.

Our cottage prayer meetings are proving times of blessing. Already we have won a soul as a result of a meeting held in the house. A returned man had his little daughter dedicated to God on Sunday, March 6. "The War Cry" is well read here, and the serial is causing a great deal of interest, as the Adjutant is known to some of the mildest Soldiers. We sell our hundred weekly and have secured new subscribers since the New Year—Lillian Lyman, Lieutenant.

MIMICO.
Red-Hot Meetings—Good Crowds—
Tobacco Slave Comes to God.

During the week-end, March 5-6, we again had a wonderful time. On Saturday night a red-hot meeting was conducted by Captain Clarke, and many comrades testified to the saving power of God.

At the knee-drill and Holiness meeting good crowds were present. At night the Hall was full, and during a well-fought prayer meeting one young man, a slave to drink and ill-health, volunteered in the Cross. Brother Baker sold farewell. He has been a good worker, and will be missed in the Band. The Soldiers and Converts are fighting shoulder to shoulder, both in the Hall and in the open air.

One of our Soldiers, Brother King, has been given the rank of Envoy—A. Hamilton, C.C.

STRATFORD.
Visit of Brigadier and Mrs. Barr—
Forteen Seekers.

During the week-end, February 26-27, we were privileged to have with us Brigadier and Mrs. Barr. On Sunday afternoon the Brigadier gave a stirring address, making an appeal for workers amongst the Young People. We had the joy of seeing fourteen seek Salvation.

We have nearly completed two weeks of special meetings, which have proved to be both helpful and inspiring.

Our Songster Brigade is making progress, and much credit is due to the Leader, D. Brooks. Our Officers, Adjutant Raven and Lieutenant Caldwell, are alive to their responsibilities, doing all they can to push the war and extend God's Kingdom.

PETERBORO I.
Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Miller Lead
Week-End Meetings—Seven
Seekers For Salvation.

Last week-end we received a visit from Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Miller, and a great season of blessing was granted to our Corps. Right from the commencement of the meetings we felt God's presence, and Band, Songsters, and Soldiers worked together in a spirit of real co-operation. Mrs. Miller took two of the lessons, and her talks proved to be of great value. On Sunday night, after a day of blessing, the Soldiers went in for a real fight for souls. Colonel Miller spoke on "The Great Reality For the Life of Life," and Jesus Christ was lifted up as the only cure for all of sin's disease. At the close of the prayer meeting there was great rejoicing at the sight of seven souls at the Cross.

MONTREAL II.
Eight Soldiers Enrolled—One was Formerly a Drunkard.

Lieut.-Colonel Nettidge recently commissioned the Local Officers, and also enrolled eight comrades as Soldiers. Among the number were two married couples. One comrade was formerly a drunkard, but was spoken to by one of our "War Cry" buccaners in a hotel. The result was he came along in the meetings and got converted, and now he is wearing uniform. Sister Mrs. W. Ballou was commissioned Home League Secretary. Bandmaster W. Pottick, Corps Secretary; Sister Mrs. W. Major, Corps Cadet Guard; and Sister Mrs. T. Garney, Band of Love Leader. "The War Cry" is being read sixteen, under the leadership of Bandmaster R. Nelson, was commissioned, also the Songster Brigade, which has been reorganized and many numbers upstaged under the leadership of Deputy Bandmaster Godley.

BROCK AVE. (TORONTO).
Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble Lead
Sunday Meetings.

The meetings of Sunday, March 6, were conducted by Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble, assisted by Cadet Dorothy Noble. Good crowds are attending, and "The War Cry" is being read sixteen, under the leadership of Bandmaster R. Nelson, was commissioned, also the Songster Brigade, which has been reorganized and many numbers upstaged under the leadership of Deputy Bandmaster Godley.

One of our Soldiers, Brother King, has been given the rank of Envoy—A. Hamilton, C.C.

STRATFORD.
Visit of Brigadier and Mrs. Barr—
Forteen Seekers.

During the week-end, February 26-27, we were privileged to have with us Brigadier and Mrs. Barr. On Sunday afternoon the Brigadier gave a stirring address, making an appeal for workers amongst the Young People. We had the joy of seeing fourteen seek Salvation.

We have nearly completed two weeks of special meetings, which have proved to be both helpful and inspiring.

Our Songster Brigade is making progress, and much credit is due to the Leader, D. Brooks. Our Officers, Adjutant Raven and Lieutenant Caldwell, are alive to their responsibilities, doing all they can to push the war and extend God's Kingdom.

KINGSTON.
Mrs. Brigadier Green Leads—
End Meetings—Twenty-Six
Souls Seek Salvation.

Much interest is still being taken in the Great Call Campaign, and many souls are being brought to seek Salvation. We had Young People, the Life-Saving Guard Organization, with us for three days, and talks were helpful and inspiring. We had three sons on Sunday. Junior Annual was held on Monday, February 21, and prizes were being nearly one hundred and thirty were present to the Junior Annual. A demonstration was given by the children, and a nice crowd was present.

Mrs. Brigadier Green was with us last week-end, and we had the joy of seeing twenty-six souls at the mercy-seat on Sunday. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Green gave a lecture on the Army and Navy for women only, and a large crowd was present, including many prominent church members of the city. The lecture was a splendid success, and the finest story of Army Officership that we have been privileged to hear in this city. It was plainly seen that the larger crowd present enjoyed every moment of the lecture by the attention they gave. The Band and Singers are still improving. Adjutant and Mrs. Gendries are leading us on—Bandmaster L. McNeil, Corps Correspondent.

ORILLIA.
Cottage Prayer Meetings Well
Attended.

Encouraging results are following the efforts put forth in connection with the Great Call Campaign. Cottage prayer meetings were held during the week at the homes of Truett and Mrs. Dimble, and Brother and Sister James. The attendance at each place was the largest at any similar meetings held thus far, and helpful times were experienced. The week-end meetings were conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Hargrove, much conviction prevailed in the Sunday evening meeting. A number talked the night for prayer. The Converts, and particularly the young folks, are taking a good stand for God.

TRENTON.
We had with us on Friday, March 4, Mrs. Brigadier Green, six sons out for Sanctification. Staff-Captain Layman, our Young People's Work is still advancing. We had a Bandral at Company meeting.

BROCK AVE. (TORONTO).
Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble Lead
Sunday Meetings.

The meetings of Sunday, March 6, were conducted by Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble, assisted by Cadet Dorothy Noble. Good crowds are attending, and "The War Cry" is being read sixteen, under the leadership of Bandmaster R. Nelson, was commissioned, also the Songster Brigade, which has been reorganized and many numbers upstaged under the leadership of Deputy Bandmaster Godley.

One of our Soldiers, Brother King, has been given the rank of Envoy—A. Hamilton, C.C.

STRATFORD.
Visit of Brigadier and Mrs. Barr—
Forteen Seekers.

During the week-end, February 26-27, we were privileged to have with us Brigadier and Mrs. Barr. On Sunday afternoon the Brigadier gave a stirring address, making an appeal for workers amongst the Young People. We had the joy of seeing fourteen seek Salvation.

We have nearly completed two weeks of special meetings, which have proved to be both helpful and inspiring.

Our Songster Brigade is making progress, and much credit is due to the Leader, D. Brooks. Our Officers, Adjutant Raven and Lieutenant Caldwell, are alive to their responsibilities, doing all they can to push the war and extend God's Kingdom.

PAST TENSE.
Colonel and Mrs. Morehen
Lead Sunday Meetings—Two Seekers.

It was a good day on Sunday, February 27, with Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Morehen leading us on. The Services given by both Colonel and Mrs. Morehen were a great inspiration and help to us.

We felt God's presence very near us in the Holiness meeting. In the afternoon the Colonel gave the children, a very interesting and helpful talk. The Salvation address given by the Colonel in the night meeting went home to the hearts of the sinners present and two souls knelt at the Cross.

On Monday night a lecture entitled, "Wonderful Trophies of One I Have Met," was delivered by the Colonel in a very interesting manner. All present thoroughly enjoyed it.

MIDLAND.
Thirty-One Converts During Special
Meetings—Visit to Outpost.

We are having splendid times here, under the leadership of Adjutant and Mrs. Spiller.

On Sunday, February 13, we had with us Adjutant Raymer, of Orillia. The services were good all day and at night one hundred and thirty souls were converted.

On February 21 Adjutant Spiller, with two steel bands of comrades, went to Victoria Harbour, a village about eight miles distant. Here he conducted a meeting in the Methodist Church at the close of which he had the joy of seeing fifteen souls seeking Salvation.

We concluded our week's revival services on Sunday, February 27. In the Holiness meeting, Adjutant Spiller gave a stirring talk on "Perfection Love." At the close we had an all-night love feast. At night Mrs. Spiller, who has been here for some time, was to the front in the prayer meeting, leading sinners to Jesus. God's presence was felt throughout the meeting, and our faith was rewarded by four souls at the Cross, making a total of thirty-one for the campaign.

TRENTON.
We had with us on Friday, March 4, Mrs. Brigadier Green, six sons out for Sanctification. Staff-Captain Layman, our Young People's Work is still advancing. We had a Bandral at Company meeting.

BROCK AVE. (TORONTO).
Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble Lead
Sunday Meetings.

The meetings of Sunday, March 6, were conducted by Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble, assisted by Cadet Dorothy Noble. Good crowds are attending, and "The War Cry" is being read sixteen, under the leadership of Bandmaster R. Nelson, was commissioned, also the Songster Brigade, which has been reorganized and many numbers upstaged under the leadership of Deputy Bandmaster Godley.

One of our Soldiers, Brother King, has been given the rank of Envoy—A. Hamilton, C.C.

STRATFORD.
Visit of Brigadier and Mrs. Barr—
Forteen Seekers.

During the week-end, February 26-27, we were privileged to have with us Brigadier and Mrs. Barr. On Sunday afternoon the Brigadier gave a stirring address, making an appeal for workers amongst the Young People. We had the joy of seeing fourteen seek Salvation.

We have nearly completed two weeks of special meetings, which have proved to be both helpful and inspiring.

Our Songster Brigade is making progress, and much credit is due to the Leader, D. Brooks. Our Officers, Adjutant Raven and Lieutenant Caldwell, are alive to their responsibilities, doing all they can to push the war and extend God's Kingdom.

INCIDENT COMPETITION A SOLDIER'S DREAM

SOME twenty-five years ago a certain Soldier of our Corps was chosen to take the commission of Young People's Sergeant-Major. For some five years or more he did his duty well. One night Sunday the devil tried hard to discourage and upset him by getting him to think the walk was too far and the work too hard, and he fled about four miles in the country and had to take his wife with three little boys. So he said to the Captain in charge, "I wish you would get some other Soldier to take my commission." The Captain said, "The careful brother, think what step you are taking. After going home and retiring for the night the Soldier had a dream. He thought he was going home along a car track when he met a great flock of sheep with the shepherd following behind him. First one, then another, and another began to bite him. The Soldier called to the shepherd for help, but the man replied, "I will send you to help, for you promised God to lead and look after His flock of lambs, and now you are not willing to follow all the way. So now if the devil deceives you it is your own fault." At this the Soldier's wife, hearing the moans of her husband, awakened him from his dream, but it taught him a great lesson. He no more said he had any reason to give up his duty. For many years after he held his commission, until ill health and loss of memory caused him to step aside. He proved true to His God, and should a year and a half ago God promoted him to glory. He had faithfully borne his cross, and now he wears his crown. I might say, dear reader, if you feel discouraged or like giving up your God-given task remember the Soldier's dream and press on to the realm above—A true story, written by the wife of our promoted comrade.

(The prize of $200 is awarded this week to the writer of the above incident.)

HOW A SCOFFER WAS SILENCED.

While reading your incident competition I could not help thinking about an incident that happened at Niagara Falls a few years ago. Hearing a conversation, I went in the direction of the music, and it was the Salvation Army holding a meeting. One of the speakers said, "The Captain is away to-night, and we need two dollars for our expenses, so while you put your collection on the drum, our brother will play and sing for you." A dollar and eighty cents was soon thrown on the drum and then the brother played and sang to speak about God's Word. Then a scoffer said, "The Bible is a myth—it contradicts itself. Tell me where did it say that God is in the devil's service. When it came time for the invitation to seek a higher life he was given it seemed only natural that the same church should be singing the same words. His brother followed from near the back of the Hall, and some of the Band was nearly all kneeling around the front and praying for God to have His way. It was a wonderful thing, a real "upper room" for the Band, and then there things have been going along much smoother than before. God has truly come into our lives as bandmen. May we never lose sight of the fact that we can always get just a little nearer to God than we are at present—A. H. Edmonds, Deputy Bandmaster.

CHESTER.
The meetings on Sunday, March 6, were conducted by the Candidates. They did very well and their talks were much enjoyed by all. There were three seekers at night. We have nine Candidates for the next Session. Last year five went from our Corps. The increase this year is in line with the motto of the Corps, "One hundred per cent, better every time."

TRENTON.
We had with us on Friday, March 4, Mrs. Brigadier Green, six sons out for Sanctification. Staff-Captain Layman, our Young People's Work is still advancing. We had a Bandral at Company meeting.

BROCK AVE. (TORONTO).
Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble Lead
Sunday Meetings.

The meetings of Sunday, March 6, were conducted by Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Noble, assisted by Cadet Dorothy Noble. Good crowds are attending, and "The War Cry" is being read sixteen, under the leadership of Bandmaster R. Nelson, was commissioned, also the Songster Brigade, which has been reorganized and many numbers upstaged under the leadership of Deputy Bandmaster Godley.

One of our Soldiers, Brother King, has been given the rank of Envoy—A. Hamilton, C.C.

STRATFORD.
Visit of Brigadier and Mrs. Barr—
Forteen Seekers.

During the week-end, February 26-27, we were privileged to have with us Brigadier and Mrs. Barr. On Sunday afternoon the Brigadier gave a stirring address, making an appeal for workers amongst the Young People. We had the joy of seeing fourteen seek Salvation.

We have nearly completed two weeks of special meetings, which have proved to be both helpful and inspiring.

Our Songster Brigade is making progress, and much credit is due to the Leader, D. Brooks. Our Officers, Adjutant Raven and Lieutenant Caldwell, are alive to their responsibilities, doing all they can to push the war and extend God's Kingdom.

INGERSOLL.
Brigadier Crichton Leads Week-
End Meetings—Three Knelt at Mercy-Seat.

On Saturday and Sunday, February 26-27, Ingersoll Corps was visited by Brigadier Crichton and Staff-Captain Ritchie.

On Sunday morning the infant son of Bandmaster and Mrs. John Rowland was dedicated to God. It was an impressive and helpful service indeed. The Staff-Captain gave an earnest address.

In the afternoon the local lodges of the Sons of England attended a forceful address on "Our Heritage." The visitors joined heartily in the singing of the songs. The Band rendered the "Unhallowed" march very acceptably, under Bandmaster Rowland.

The night service was a battle for souls and wound up with three seekers at the mercy-seat. A Songster Brigade has been formed and were commissioned by the Brigadier. Brother Clarke is the leader.

WELLAND.
Thirteen Seekers During Past Two Weeks.

We can still report steady progress at this Corps. On Sunday, February 20, it was impossible for our Officers to lead us, owing to sickness, but the comrades carried on. Young People's Sergeant-Major Fritz conducted the Holiness meeting. At night we had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. P. McMillan, a converted long-keeper. His address was illustrated, with experiences from his own life of sixty years' service for the devil. He was converted two years ago in his own room, and is just as earnest now in God's work as he was in the devil's service. We finished up with four souls at the Cross.

For the week-end, February 26-27, Commandant T. Urquhart of St. Catharines conducted the meetings. Mrs. Urquhart assisted in the Sunday night service and eight souls sought Salvation and one Holiness.

CHESTER.
The meetings on Sunday, March 6, were conducted by the Candidates. They did very well and their talks were much enjoyed by all. There were three seekers at night. We have nine Candidates for the next Session. Last year five went from our Corps. The increase this year is in line with the motto of the Corps, "One hundred per cent, better every time."

The Misdoings of the Wrongway Family

"Oh, was some power the gift to us, to see ourselves as others see us!"

(This week the prize goes to the Halifax Corps.)

SALVATION SOLDIER'S ARMOURY

ORDERS AND REGULATIONS

For Soldiers of the Salvation Army

NO. 1. NO CONFORMITY TO THE WORLD—NO IMPURITY.

By the world we mean the ungodly people who live in rebellion against God, and therefore in sin. The Salvation Soldier will recognize the world, with all its fashion, follies, riches, pleasures, and will separate himself from it, not merely as a duty, but because he finds no pleasure in it.

He will, therefore, separate himself from:

(a) Its pleasures or amusements.

(b) Its fashions.

(c) Its companionships.

The Salvation Soldier should be free from all unclean and therefore unlawful gratification of the sexual appetites.

This will apply to his thoughts, feelings, and conduct, whether in private or in public.

He must not allow himself in any secret thought or feeling which he knows that God would object to, or that is not in keeping with that cleanness of heart and life which is the portion of Jesus Christ.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

He must watch against this, lest he be defiled.

THE WORLD-WIDE CALL FOR SELF-DENIAL

Men and women of every nation appeal to the Salvation Army for help—Your gift to Self-Denial will aid in answering the call.

SELF-DENIAL BENEFITS

WHILE engaged in collecting for Self-Denial, Soldiers, Bandmen, and others are frequently asked to explain the uses to which the Salvation Army puts the seemingly huge sums of money gathered in year by year in connection with this effort.

Broadly speaking, the Army Field, the Social Work, and Training, and Shunt Work receive the major benefit.

The Self-Denial assists the Salvation Army to carry on Evangelical and Social Work in over seventy countries and colonies. It helps to support Army work in more than 3,000 Corps and Outposts in India; to conduct Day Schools for some 17,000 children at 550 centres; to maintain Houses for released prisoners and beggars; to train women in Industrial Homes and men at the various Prison Colonies; to minister to the sick in Hospitals and Dispensaries.

To send out women Missionaries to labour among the women and children of China; to maintain Officers engaged at twenty-seven Corps, and to train native workers.

To maintain Prison-gate Homes, Industrial Homes and Hospitals.

To send out women Missionaries to labour among the women and children of China; to maintain Officers engaged at twenty-seven Corps, and to train native workers.

To maintain Prison-gate Homes, Industrial Homes and Hospitals.

To send out women Missionaries to labour among the women and children of China; to maintain Officers engaged at twenty-seven Corps, and to train native workers.

To maintain Prison-gate Homes, Industrial Homes and Hospitals.

To send out women Missionaries to labour among the women and children of China; to maintain Officers engaged at twenty-seven Corps, and to train native workers.

TO THE NEW CONVERT

From An Old Soldier.

NO. V.

Possibly you have not given the matter much thought, but I want you to remember that you—as a Salvation Army Recruit—are one of those about whom the Army Founder was very anxious. He wanted you to stand fast, and to come out of the light a victor.

Of the many books he wrote, it has been repeatedly declared that not one is so good as his "Orders and Regulations for Soldiers of the Salvation Army." Any man or woman who takes that book as a guide will have cause to rejoice. It is written to hold the Salvationist, and there is scarcely a condition in life or a phase of experience possible, that is not covered in this little volume. It deals with eternal things in the simplest manner, and goes right to the point on matters about which many writers speak vaguely, or fail to mention at all.

For you who are just beginning your Salvation warfare, the book is indispensable. Any Founder knew what he was writing about, he knew the nature and the temptations of the men and women he was writing for, he knew the power of the Devil whose kingdom he was trying to overthrow, and, best of all, he knew the God he was writing about.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

From this you will understand the reason that I urge you to get the book—it costs ten cents and can be had of your Corps Officer—and make a careful and prayerful study of it. It will be a source of strength and blessing to you. It is a God-honouring book in a very peculiar sense, and if carefully followed will enable you to work for Him under any and every condition in life.

March 19, 1921

THE WAR CRY

73

WHAT'S DOING ROUND THE WORLD

AMERICA'S PRESIDENT.

Is inaugurated at Washington.

THE new President of the United States, Mr. Warren G. Harding, was formally inaugurated at Washington on March 4.

On the Bible used by George Washington at his first induction into office, and on a verse of Scripture extolling the virtue of a humble spirit in God, Mr. Harding pledged himself to devote the best that was in him to his great task.

In his inaugural address, speaking on behalf of the people of the country, he expressed his willingness to associate with the other nations of the world in seeking an agreement for the reduction of armaments, in suggesting plans for mediating, conciliation, and arbitration, in cherishing the laws of international relationship, and in establishing a world court for the disposition of intractable questions.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

He said, better than ever before, "We make the aspirations of humanity and share them," he declared.

THE NEWEST BRITISH COLONY

Some interesting facts about Kenya—Great Diversities of Climate—Marvellous Fertility of Soil

PERHAPS the school children know, but how many of Canada's grown-ups can give the name of the newest British Colony? Its colony is not meant Mesopotamia or any other "mandate territory," but a real British colony. It is "Kenya," and it is on the East coast of Africa, and was formerly known as British East Africa. The change in name came in 1918, when it was made a year or two ago, but the map-makers seem hardly aware of it. But Kenya Colony is one of the oldest inhabited parts of the earth. As our readers are aware, the Salvation Army has just commenced its operations in this new colony.

Many Famous Explorers. It has been the scene of the operations of many famous explorers, including Burton, Speke, Grant, and Stanley, among the new and undeveloped parts of the Empire. This great, rich territory has many distinct features, and will come into greater prominence.

The best comparison of Kenya Colony makes is with New Zealand, which is 10,000 miles long, and covers a variety of climates, and tropical climate. The key to Kenya's diversity of products and temperate is her latitude or longitude, but elevation. Beginning at the coast and ascending the ground rises rapidly to higher, drier air, and grass-covered or bush-covered stretches of territory very suitable for agriculture or stock-raising.

The average temperature at Mombasa on the coast is 78 degrees, which is just comfortably warm like a bright June day. Inward a hundred miles, the climate varies between 58 and 98 degrees, and resembles almost entirely that of Australia or South Africa. Big rivers, that have their origin in distant mountains, traverse all the great game and insure immense outputs to the cultivator.

The railway constructed many years ago by the British Government officials goes to an altitude of 5,000 feet as Nairobi is reached. In the area are great herds of giraffes, zebras, buffaloes, and kudu, while lion, leopard and hyena prowls on the fringes of the open territory. Rhinos, though their numbers are diminishing, and ostriches abound. At Nairobi the temperature is never below 62 degrees, and never above 92 in the shade. The winds are unknown.

Produces Fine Fruits. Twenty miles from Nairobi lie the Mau Hills, at an elevation of 7,000 feet, and a European settler has established a great orchard of fruit there. The hills are of granite, but the top soil produces the finest of temperate climate fruits, even if it is directly on the equator. North of Nairobi lies Kiambu, the great coffee district, and north of the boundary across the mountains lie the rough and barbaric kingdoms of Abyssinia, Kenya, and the great mountain range of the East.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

Kenya is a land of infinite variety and possibility. Almost anything except large tracts peculiar to extreme Arctic territory will grow profusely, and Kenya's wonderful attractions are not being extensively advertised in Britain.

MANY IMMIGRANTS.

Were Attracted to Canada During the Past Year.

THE imperative need of Canada absorbing the immigrants, who flock in thousands, to these shores is reflected in the fact that during the year 1920 the total immigration to Canada from 54 different countries was 147,502, of which 98,636 entered by the way of the ocean ports and 48,866 from the United States. These figures, which were made public by the department of immigration and colonization recently, mark a decided increase over the 1919 figures which showed 65,569 immigrants entering Canada by way of ocean ports and 52,064 from the United States. Immigration from the European countries in 1920 included 41,201 men; 38,424 women, and 15,011 children under 14 years of age. In the same period 26,263 men; 11,332 women and 9,229 children under 14 years of age entered by the way of the United States.

During 1920 a total of 49,248 English men and women landed in Canada, while the immigrants from Scotland totalled 19,886, and from Ireland 6,122. Immigration was fairly heavy from Central Europe and it is only the strictest enforcement of the immigration laws that prevents this country from being flooded with Europeans fleeing from the destitution and poverty of the continent.

A majority of the immigrants, who come to Canada in 1920, settled in Ontario and the figures show that Ontario's population was increased by 48,664 European immigrants and 13,294 from the United States last year. A total of 19,813 went to Quebec; 13,013 to Manitoba; 13,643 in Saskatchewan; 16,484 to Alberta; 14,136 to British Columbia; 4,574 to Nova Scotia; 1,529 to New Brunswick, and 105 to Yukon.

A majority of the immigrants, who come to Canada in 1920, settled in Ontario and the figures show that Ontario's population was increased by 48,664 European immigrants and 13,294 from the United States last year. A total of 19,813 went to Quebec; 13,013 to Manitoba; 13,643 in Saskatchewan; 16,484 to Alberta; 14,136 to British Columbia; 4,574 to Nova Scotia; 1,529 to New Brunswick, and 105 to Yukon.

A majority of the immigrants, who come to Canada in 1920, settled in Ontario and the figures show that Ontario's population was increased by 48,664 European immigrants and 13,294 from the United States last year. A total of 19,813 went to Quebec; 13,013 to Manitoba; 13,643 in Saskatchewan; 16,484 to Alberta; 14,136 to British Columbia; 4,574 to Nova Scotia; 1,529 to New Brunswick, and 105 to Yukon.

A majority of the immigrants, who come to Canada in 1920, settled in Ontario and the figures show that Ontario's population was increased by 48,664 European immigrants and 13,294 from the United States last year. A total of 19,813 went to Quebec; 13,013 to Manitoba; 13,643 in Saskatchewan; 16,484 to Alberta; 14,136 to British Columbia; 4,574 to Nova Scotia; 1,529 to New Brunswick, and 105 to Yukon.

A majority of the immigrants, who come to Canada in 1920, settled in Ontario and the figures show that Ontario's population was increased by 48,664 European immigrants and 13,294 from the United States last year. A total of 19,813 went to Quebec; 13,013 to Manitoba; 13,643 in Saskatchewan; 16,484 to Alberta; 14,136 to British Columbia; 4,574 to Nova Scotia; 1,529 to New Brunswick, and 105 to Yukon.

A majority of the immigrants, who come to Canada in 1920, settled in Ontario and the figures show that Ontario's population was

WE ARE Looking For You

We will search for missing persons in any part of the globe, and as far as possible, send them to their homes. LOST—COLONEL, TOWN, missing—family or friends.

One sister should be sent with every case, where possible, to help carry out the work. In case of reproduction of photographs, three dollars ($3) extra.

Officers, Soldiers and friends are requested to assist us by looking regularly through the Missing Column, and to give information concerning any cases, always stating the name and address.

KINGDON, HENRY, WILLIAM—Age 25, height 5 ft. 8 in. Black hair, hazel eyes, dark complexion. Farm or general work. Was in London. Brother in England. 1215.

CAMPBELL, EARL OSBORNE—Age 18 years, dark hair, grey eyes, fair complexion. Canadian. Present whereabouts unknown. Please communicate with us. 1215.

LAWSON, ALFRED CLAUDE—Cox or dark complexion. Came to Canada. August 1910. May be found in or near London. Address desired. 1215.

NICOL, AGNES—Age 31, height 5 ft. 10 in. Dark brown hair, hazel complexion. Was in Montreal. Sister missing. 1215.

ELLISON, MRS. WIFE of GEORGE—Age 40, dark hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion. Was in London. Brother in England. 1215.

MURPHY, JOHN—Age 25, height 5 ft. 10 in. Dark hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion. Came to Canada. Present whereabouts unknown. Please communicate with us. 1215.

SMITH, JOHN THOMAS—Age 25, height 5 ft. 10 in. Dark hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion. Came to Canada. Present whereabouts unknown. Please communicate with us. 1215.

POWELL, WILFRED—Fair complexion. Was in London. Brother in England. 1215.

REYNOLDS, MISS ELIZABETH—Age 27, dark hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion. Was in London. Brother in England. 1215.

BAXTER, MARY HENDERSON—Age 25, dark hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion. Was in London. Brother in England. 1215.

SMITH, CHARLOTTE (Lettie), also Charles—Age 25, height 5 ft. 10 in. Dark hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion. Was in London. Brother in England. 1215.

REID, VICTOR—Age 25, height 5 ft. 10 in. Dark hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion. Was in London. Brother in England. 1215.

HULL, MRS. MARY (Mollie)—Age 25, dark hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion. Was in London. Brother in England. 1215.

DAVIS, GEORGE THOMAS and WILLIAM—Age 25 and 20 years. Were in Nova Scotia. Please communicate with us. 1215.

WEEVER, MISS ELEANOR—Missing since June 1910, from Montreal. Mother most anxious for news. 1215.

ALLEN, JOHN M.—Formerly of Belfast. Last heard of eighteen years ago. Any information gratefully received by Sister Catherine, now residing with Anna in Canada. 1215.

HOME LEAGUE SOCIAL.

Is Held at Wyckwood, Presided Over by Staff-Captain and Mrs. Knight.

On Wednesday, March 2, we had with us Staff-Captain and Mrs. Knight, to conduct our Home League Social, which proved a great success. The members' husbands and a few other friends brought the attendance up to about sixty-five. A very interesting programme was arranged, with recitations, instrumental and vocal solos and duets. Sister Watson accompanying on the organ.

Mrs. Staff-Captain Knight gave a very helpful address to the Home League members, after which Home League Secretary Mrs. Hawkins sang a solo. Home League Treasurer Mrs. Ottaway then gave a Bible reading, and also explained what the Home League had been able to accomplish during the last two years in helping the needy.

SONGS OF SALVATION

OUR ALL.

Tunes—Ye banks and braes, 121; Madrid, 117; Song-Book, 777.

Come, blessed Saviour, very near,
Come and our Self-Denial bless;
Forgive our faults, dispel our fear,
Crown all our efforts with success.
Into each heart Thy wishes speak,
For in Thy smile alone we seek.

What glory Thou didst lay aside,
What Thou didst make us free;
For all Thou didst for us deny,
We will do what we can for Thee;
And though the gift we bring be small,
Accept it, Lord, it is our all.

BRING YOUR BEST.

Tunes—Shall we meet? 156; Song-Book, 770.

Bring your titles into the storehouse,
Lay your best at Jesus' feet;
For your dearest and your best,
Bring with us in Self-Denial.

Make your sacrifice complete,
Bring your time, and bring your talents,
Bring that which will cost you pain;
Bring your best, your dearest treasure.

Let God have His own again,
Though your all seem very little,
Cast it in God's treasury;
Jesus always recognizes
What is given cheerfully.

TAKE MY LIFE.

Tunes—Nottingham, 85; Innocents, 83; Theodora, 11, 39, 3; Song-Book, 781.

Take my life, and let it be
Consecrated, Lord, to Thee;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love;
Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only for my King;
Take my lips, and let them be
Filled with messages from Thee.

Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mile would I withhold;
Take my intellect, and use,
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

ALL IS THINE.

Tunes—I have not much, 141, 557; C. Ellendine, 20; C. Song-Book, 775.

And is it so? A gift from me
Dost Thou, dear Lord, request?
Then speak Thy will, whatever it be,
Obedient, I am here.

I have not much to give Thee, Lord,
For that great love which made
Thee mine;
I have not much to give Thee, Lord,
But all I have is Thine.

And dost Thou ask a gift from me—
The talents I possess?
Such as I have I give to Thee,
That others I may bless.

The Easter "War Cry"

"Now Being Despatched to Corps"

BE SURE AND GET A COPY

Pictures of Easteride events are combined in this issue with photographs, showing the work being done by the Salvation Army in missionary countries and at home, the whole constituting a "Great Call" to all readers to do their utmost in the coming Self-Denial Campaign.

Some of the leading articles are as follows:—

- "The Runners and the Resurrection," by the GENERAL.
- "Just a Minute" by the Army Founder.
- "Serving Him in Holiness," by Commissioner Howard.
- "A Call to Action," by Commissioner Richards.
- "A Startling Statement About a Subtle Sin," by Colonel Brengle.

Other features include interesting stories from the Army's Mission Fields, and glimpses at the Men's and Women's Social Work in our own country. The Field operations are represented by reports from three typical Corps.

Everybody who sees it is sure to want at least two copies, one to keep and one to send to his or her best friend. Be sure to order a sufficient supply.

Twenty Pages—The Price is Ten Cents.

COMING EVENTS

THE COMMISSIONER.

Belleville, Sat-Sun, March 19-20; Ligar Street, Sunday, March 27; Kingston, Sat-Sun, April 23-24.

Lieut.-Colonel Atby will accept party the Commissioner, and will also interview Candidates at the Corps named.

THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

Brantford, Sat-Sun, March 26-27.

Colonel Gaskin—West Toronto, Sun, March 20.

Lieut.-Colonel Noble—Galt, Sat-Sun, March 19-20; Wyckwood, Sun, March 27.

Lieut.-Colonel Miller—Chatham, Sat-Sun, March 26-27.

Lieut.-Colonel Bettridge—Belleville, Sat-Sun, March 19-20; Montreal, L. Fri, March 25; Montreal V.I., Sat, March 27.

Lieut.-Colonel Hargrave—Hamilton, L. Fri, March 25; Brantford, Sat-Sun, March 26-27.

Brigadier Walton—Halifax N. Sat-Sun, March 19-20; Windsor, Mon-Wed, March 21-23; Pugwash, Sat-Sun, March 26-27.

Mrs. Brigadier Green—Milford, Sat-Sun, March 19-20; Orillia, Mon, March 21; Barrie, Wed, March 23; Collingwood, Thurs, March 24; Denbyville, Sat-Sun, March 26-27; Paris, Wed, April 2; Galt, Thurs, April 3; Preston, Fri, April 4; Simcoe, Sat-Sun, April 5-6.

Brigadier Southall—Windsor, L. Sat-Sun, March 26-27.

Staff-Captain Penfold—Toronto, Sat-Sun, March 26-27.

PRISON APPOINTMENTS.

Sunday March 20.

Langstaff—Brigadier Attwell; Mimico—Major Innes.

Don Jail—Commandant McRae.

Burrows—Adjutant Adams.

Chatham Jail—Captain Squarebrige.

Ottawa Jail—Adjutant Lewis.

Halifax County Jail—Commandant Watson.

Bordeaux Jail (Montreal)—Sat, March 19, Adjutant Pithers.

Pollack St. Jail (Montreal)—Adjutant Malone.

Coming Band Events.

Cueph Band—Kitchener, April 16-17.

CENTRAL HOLINESS MEETINGS

will be held EVERY FRIDAY at 8 p.m.

TORONTO TEMPLE
Colonel Gaskin

HAMILTON
Lieut.-Colonel Hargrave

MONTREAL
Lieut.-Colonel Bettridge

ST. JOHN
Brigadier Moore

OCEAN TRAVEL.

Officers, Soldiers and Friends of the Salvation Army, who are going to Europe, will find it desirable to have a complete information booklet from the general communications to Major Tupper, at the Salvation Army, 111 Carlton St., Winnipeg, Man.

The War Cry

Easter Number

Rising, He left the Tomb
a Conqueror!

Toronto
March 26th 1921
No. 1902

Ten Cents